

Red Ribbon Week

Imagine Leeland Public Charter School

Red Ribbon Week is an awareness campaign observed annually across the United States during the last week of October. Each year Red Ribbon Week celebrations bring over eighty million people together to help communities take a stand to make smart choices, reduce violence and commit to being drug-free.

Red Ribbon Week Contests

Door Decorating Contest

Classes can decorate the outside of their teacher's door in honor of RRW. Doors will be judged on Wednesday afternoon. There will be first, second and third place winners.

Poster Contest

Design a poster with a positive anti-bullying and/or anti-drug message and turn it into Mr. Blake by Friday before school. Top grade level winners will earn prizes.

Poem Contest

Write a poem urging others to take a stand against bullying and/or say no to drugs and turn it into Mr. Blake by Friday before school. Top grade level winners will earn prizes.

How can students participate in Red Ribbon Week?

- Dress up for each spirit day
- Participate in the RRW Contests
- Pledge to "Stand United Against Bullying and Drugs" (10/23)
